

MARK E. STACKLE
BRIGADIER GENERAL
MEDICAL CORPS
UNITED STATES ARMY
DIRECTOR, DEFENSE HEALTH
NETWORK EUROPE

Brigadier General Mark Stackle began his Army Career after graduating from Gonzaga University with a Bachelor of Arts (Honors) in History. He received his Doctor of Medicine degree from Georgetown University School of Medicine and completed his Family Medicine residency at Tripler Army Medical Center, Hawaii, where he served as Chief Resident.

After completion of his residency training, BG Stackle commanded the United States Army Health Clinic in Babenhausen, Germany. He then served as the Command Surgeon with the 526th Brigade Support Battalion, 2nd Brigade Combat Team, 101st Airborne Division during Operation Iraqi Freedom. BG Stackle completed the Madigan Leader and Faculty Development Fellowship during which he earned his master's degree in Business Administration from Pacific Lutheran University.

After completing his fellowship, he served as a faculty physician with the Eisenhower Army Medical Center Family Medicine Residency Program at Fort Eisenhower, Georgia, and later as the Family Medicine Residency Program Director at Womack Army Medical Center, Fort Bragg, North Carolina. He went on to serve as the Deputy Commander for Clinical Services for U.S. Army Medical Activity–Japan, followed by duty as the Command Surgeon for the 4th Infantry Division at Fort Carson, Colorado, including deployment as the United States Forces–Afghanistan Command Surgeon in support of Operation Freedom's Sentinel and Resolute Support. He subsequently commanded the U.S. Army Institute of Surgical Research, served as the Medical Corps Branch Proponency Officer at the U.S. Army Medical Center of Excellence, and later commanded Brooke Army Medical Center at Fort Sam Houston, Texas. He most recently served as the Command Surgeon for U.S. Army Western Hemisphere Command.

A graduate of the U.S. Army War College, BG Stackle's military awards and decorations include the Legion of Merit with two oak leaf clusters, Bronze Star Medal, the Defense Meritorious Service Medal, the Meritorious Service Medal with four oak leaf clusters, and the Air Assault badge. He is a member of the Order of Military Medical Merit and has been awarded the "A" Proficiency Designator by the Army Surgeon General. Certified by the American Board of Family Medicine, he is a Fellow of the American Academy of Family Physicians.